"Why I Must Leave You"

To My Loving Family & Friends

*Given By The Lord
October 1, 1969*

*Returned Unto The Lord
August 25, 2015*

*Sorry I had to leave you all without a goodbye, wave of a hand or a kiss.
I have gone to a better place. I did not know it, but it was time for me to close this book of life. I love all of you and will miss you all.*

God knows what is best for all of us.

For now, my work down here on earth is finished.

Calm your hearts and dry your tears, for if prayers would have strengthened my body and made me well you would not be here today celebrating my Home Going and, I would still be with you.

So let me rest now, because I now have no more pain, no more headaches and sorrow to endure, my Loving Heavenly Father, knows best and told me "it's now time to take your rest".

"God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes"

Revelation 21:49

"When Tomorrow Starts Without Me"

*When tomorrow starts without me and I'm not here to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me,
I wish you wouldn't cry the way you did today,
While thinking of the many things we did not get to say.
I know how much you love me as much as I love you,
Each time that you think of me I know you will miss me too.
When tomorrow starts without me please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand.
The angel said my place was ready in heaven far above,
And that I would have to leave behind all those I dearly love.*

*It seemed almost impossible, that I was leaving you.
I thought of all the love we shared, and all the fun we had.
If I could relive yesterday, just even for a while,
I would say "good-bye", "I love you", and share with you a smile.
But then I fully realize, that this could never be,
Because emptiness and memories have taken the place for me.
And when I thought of worldly things I might miss come tomorrow,
I thought of you, and when I did my heart was filled with sorrow.*

*But when I walked through Heaven's Gates; I felt so much at home,
When GOD looked down and smiled at me, from His Great Golden Throne.*

He said, "this is Eternity and all I promised you, Today your life on earth is done, but here life starts a new.

I promise no tomorrow, for today will always last, and since each day here is the same day, there is no longing for the past.

You have been so faithful, so trusting and so true, I welcome you to this new home, as you knew I would do. You have been forgiven, and now at last you're free. So won't you come and take My hand and share your life with me."

So when tomorrow starts without me

*Do not think we're apart,
For every time you think of me
Remember, I'm there in your heart!*

A Mother's Love for her Son...

"Obituary / Memorial Reflection"

Monday, October 1, 1969 was a special day for Rosie and Anderson (Pete) Proctor Sr.. because God gave them a special gift. Suzie Marchann. She was born at Kaiser Permanente Hospital in Oakland, California.

Suzie attended Richmond Schools. She attended Lincoln Elementary, Downer Junior High, Harry Ells High, and graduated from Richmond High in June of 1987. She was recognized as academically gifted and invited into The MESA Program at UC Berkeley during the summer. Put off by the impersonal aloofness of established academia, Suzie elected to pursue a career at Kaiser Permanente of Richmond where she served for 22 years until she entered into the fight of her life. As with everything, Suzie decided how she would react to the challenging circumstances of her life, courageously and on her own terms.

Specialness attached itself to "Papoose" as she was affectionately nicknamed by her special aunt, Dorothy. The name became interchangeable with Pooh.

A special beloved son, Isaiah (Phella)) came into her life on April 27, 1990. He was the apple of her eye and the love of her heart. Anthony William, an uncle who was a brother, Tashawna Hightower, a cousin who felt like a sister, Kojack, a brother who was indeed a brother, Carrington, a niece who had daughter benefits, Tonya Carrie a cousin who was her God-Mother, and Felicia Bohanon, a friend who was an excellent friend; these were just some of the specialness that Suzie fostered.

From birth Suzie and her beloved sister, Angela, were inseparable and experienced a special bond. Suzie, Angela, and Rosie, their mother, formed a three way conference daily first thing in the mornings.

Suzie has kept a special relationship with God. She accepted Christ at the age of five at Ever Ready Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Daniel Kates Sr.

Great is Her Reward in Heaven!

"Obituary / Memorial Reflection"

From January 1986 to January 2000 she faithfully attended The Lily of The Valley Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of her aunt Pastor Bobbie Dicking. Finally Suzie followed her sister and mother to Bethel Temple Pentecostal Church under the leadership of the late Pastor Betty Hendricks and now under the leadership of Bishop Billy Wydermyer Jr. Suzie's work at Bethel Temple has been loving, extensive and continuous.

Suzie's favorite things: She liked Old School music and Contemporary Gospel. She was an avid reader and wrote in her journals faithfully. She loved to cook. Actually, she was the Keeper of Family Recipes and famous for her Prime Rib presentation.

No doubt about it, Suzie was a special woman. She completed the special work she was sent to do. Words used to describe her are; kind, fiercely honest, loving, supportive, faithful, and courageous. Suzie could have been a stand-up comic. She had a well-developed sense of humor.

Suzie was called to glory on Tuesday, August 25, 2015 with her mother holding her hand and loved ones surrounding her. Suzie was greeted by her heavenly father as she entered into Heaven.

Special indeed...To God Be The Glory!

Suzie leaves to mourn her home going and celebrate her life: a son, Isaiah McFarland, mother, Rosie Proctor, sister, Angela Holmes, (Grady), brothers, Anderson Jr. and Dominic Proctor, a special and beloved niece Carrington Holmes, godson, Justin McMillan, and a host of beloved cousins and other family members and friends.

My Cousin...My Sister...My Friend

We were two sister's children growing up as sisters
Took baths together, got whooping together
I told on you and you told on me.

You taught me to speak up for myself

You made me laugh and you made me cry.

You were not the one to sugar-coat nothing.

"Don't be no punk." as you would say.

You knew just about all my secrets, and I knew yours.

But most of all we knew each other as cousins, sisters, and friends.

In the words of our grandmother, "You ain't got no friends, you got family then friends".

I love you Pap Pooh; my cousin, my sister, my friend.

Love always, Tashawna aka (Shashawna)
